STRIKE STILL ON

Workers Who Are Out at Valmet Mill Don't That Trouble Is Ended

The strikers of the Rosie Valmet mill are very impatient over the report that the strike is off at the mill because the president of the union has resigned and returned to work in the mill. The strikers state that the strike is far from being over and that they are receiving assistance from other unions all over the country. The members of the union state that a very few and small per centage of those that went out on strike have returned to work. It became known Tuesday that the strikers were given an address Monday afternoon by Mr. Powers, an organizer of the Textile Workers of America. The officials of the company have nothing to say in regard to the affair.

Snow Too Much for Storrs Autobus. As many of the roads about the country are drifted with snow it was impossible to get the mail over the roads Tuesday. The autobuses that carries passengers between Storrs and this city were forced to give up and a team of horses attached to a sleight were brought into action.

Moose Lodge for Mooseup. James F. Twomey of this city, deputy organizer of this state, was in Mooseup Sunday making arrangements for instituting a lodge of Moose at that place. The lodge, when formed, will take in both Mooseup and Plainfield. A number of applications have been received from that locality by Mr. Twomey.

Dorothy Hughes Former Resident. Dorothy F. Hughes, for whose death Dr. A. O. Robbins is on trial in Providence, at one time made her home in this city with her parents. Until three years ago she and her mother were visitors at the home of her grandfather, Rufus Hughes, who resided on Windham Road near the entrance to the Camp Ground. The case is attracting a great deal of local attention at the present time.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Esther Cleveland. The funeral of Mrs. Esther Cleveland was held from her home in Andover Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. H. C. Beebe of South Coventry officiated at the service. The bearers were C. L. Buckus, F. J. Jewett, L. H. Porter and C. P. Woolley. Burial was in Andover cemetery. The director was Jay M. Shepard, funeral director.

Patrick Cunningham. The funeral of Patrick Cunningham was held at his home in this city this morning at nine o'clock and was largely attended by friends and relatives. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Eugene A. Cryne, of Immaculate Conception church, Waterbury, in honor of the deceased, with Rev. Edward A. Cotter, deacon; Rev. Leo M. Finn, sub-deacon; Rev. Wm. J. L. O'Brien, L. D. master of ceremonies; Rev. Richard E. Shortell, pastor of St. Mary's church, Ridgefield, was in the sanctuary. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Committal services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. J. Barrett. The bearers were Michael Deloher, Edward S. Sheehan, Jeremiah McCarthy, Theodore Neff, Michael J. Barrett and John J. Barrett.

Among those who attended the funeral were a number of the town and city officials. Present from out of town were: Miss Annie Cunningham, Miss May E. Cunningham, Miss Rose Cryne, Miss Mamie A. Cunningham, Miss Cunningham and Edward Cases of Willimantic; Mrs. Mary A. Conroy, Miss May Coulter and Miss Amy Fulginiti of Danbury; Geo. H. Montrose, Miss Helen Montrose, John A. Scott, president of the United Hatters of North America, and Martin Lawlor, national secretary, of New York. The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Cunningham, 10 Brooklyn, N. Y.

Elks Plan Ladies' Night. The local lodge of Elks is planning on holding a ladies' night soon. A committee composed of Mrs. L. A. McGie, Ernest Melloy and James McGie have been appointed to make arrangements for the affair.

Entertained K. of C. Professor F. Marolda gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the Knights of Columbus Tuesday evening. The entertainer is known as a man with a three distinct notes on the piano. Later a rehearsal for the coming minstrel show was held.

Let Off By Paying Costs. Fred Verr whose case was continued at Monday morning's session of the police court, appears before the court Tuesday morning to answer the charge of intoxication. A plea of guilty was entered and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs by the accused.

Caretaker Guarding Armory. Although it has been announced that all the armories of the state are guarded by men detached from this purpose, the local armory has had no guard placed about it in the building. J. E. Falouts caretaker of the armory, has been told to allow no strangers about the premises and this is being followed out. To place a guard about the building would be necessary to have orders to that effect from headquarters in Hartford, but as it would be necessary to place at least four men for this duty, which men would be in the pay of the government, it is thought that no guards are likely to be placed there.

Heard Southern Quartette. The Woman's club of this city held Gentlemen's Night in the parish house of the Congregational church Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance and during the evening a fine program was enjoyed. Refreshments were served. The Southern River Quartette of Springfield, Mass., sang a number of southern plantation melodies in fine voice. The luncheon was in charge of Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Leonard.

Potter Street Accepted. The second hearing in regard to the acceptance of Potter street as a city street was given by the street committee Monday evening. No objection was offered and no claims for damages were made, consequently the lines and grade of the street were established.

Monday's Snow Drifted. Stafford Springs had the heaviest snow storm of the season Monday. Trolley cars were greatly delayed and afternoon and evening trains on the Central Vermont road were all late.

Funeral of James B. Smith—Orlando S. Davis, 80, died of septicaemia at his home on Croutville on Sunday afternoon after a brief illness. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary Davis, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Paul Grubbs, both of whom live in Croutville. Mr. Davis has been a resident of Stafford for more than 20 years.

PLAINFIELD

Report of British American War Relief, in Which Plainfield Branch Shows Up Well—Charles Alexander, injured by fall on ice—Sleighing Party to Jewett City Tonight—Funeral of Mrs. Dawson.

The British American War Relief fund of 5 East 59th street, New York, of which Plainfield is a branch, has issued the following report for the past year: Owing to the duration of the war the needs are constantly increasing and we try to respond to the urgent appeals for socks, shirts, pajamas, underwear, blankets, sheets, towels, comfort bags, knitted articles and rubber goods. These supplies are purchased and shipped every week to various private hospitals and distributing centers, which keep us constantly in touch with their requirements, particularly acknowledging the arrival of our cases. Shipments have been made to France, England, Belgium, Serbia, Italy and Halifax.

We have a class devoted to ritual dressing where volunteer workers are always welcome. The total number of articles made by the class during the past year is 28,570.

A supply of cut-out garments to be made at home, can be obtained at the rooms.

Numerous supplies were received from Southampton, L. I., Barnardville, N. J., Cazenovia, N. Y., and Portland, Maine.

The scope of the fund's work is shown in the following gifts: Three major ambulances sent to France; one Y. M. C. recreation hut given and maintained near the firing line in France, $1,500 towards an ambulance to be sent from England to Bombay; $1,000 for work in Northern France; 12,000 pounds cotton and 23,000 yards of surgical gauze sent to France and England; 1,000 pounds of cotton; 200 wooden blankets, quantities of dried fruit sent to France; 726 articles sent to the Red Cross hospitals on Southampton docks. Maintenance of three hospital beds, 21,000 pounds of knitting wool sent to France.

Money collected since organization in October, 1914, to January 1, 1916, $4,933.54; collected in 1916, $7,600.27. Total, Jan. 1, 1917, $125,003.87.

Expenditures to Jan. 1, 1916, $27,790.44; expenditures during 1916, $87.76. Total expenditures to Jan. 1, 1917, $114,769.40. Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1917, $10,234.47.

Calculation of work during 1916, $2,957.92. The shipments during 1916 aggregated 735,351 articles.

A total of 1,250,243 articles were sent by the organization up to December 31, 1916.

Included in the summary sent to the fund from branches, January 1 to December 31, 1916, is Plainfield with $789 in bi-weekly contributions.

Plainfield branch has a total at present of $923.20, $17.10 being collected from Plainfield and $7.35 from Jewett City Saturday.
